ECONOMIC BULLETIN FOR ASIA AND THE PACIFIC
INDEX OF ARTICLES

The articles published in the Economic Bulletin, since vol. XXXIV are listed below:*

Vol. XXXV, No. 1, June 1984
- Recent economic and social developments in Hong Kong
- Recent performance, problems and prospects of the Philippine economy
- The Republic of Korea: recent economic performance and short-term prospects
- Recent economic and social developments in Singapore

Vol. XXXV, No. 2, December 1984
- Manufactured exports and industrialization: past experience of developing countries in the Asian and Pacific region and prospects in the 1980s
- Recent developments in trade and trade policy issues in the Asian and Pacific region
- National marketing agencies for rural South Asia: the case for public enterprise with private management
- Mobilization of rural savings in Thailand
- Integrating macro-econometric and input-output models: the case of Bangladesh
- Expected rates of return to university study in Malaysia: a case study of the Malaysian Agricultural University
- Application of the principle of comparative advantage in the choice of agricultural crops
- Foreign investment in the economy of Hong Kong

Vol. XXXVI, No. 1, June 1985
- The tubewell industry in Pakistan Punjab: entry, survival and role of small-scale engineering units
- Price determination in a macro-econometric framework
- Recent changes in the energy economy of Hong Kong
- Rural development in India: a survey of concepts, strategies and experience
- The impact of trade policies on employment and income distribution in Thailand
- Level and structure of liner freight charges in the Asian and Pacific region, 1978-1984
- Triggering rural development through financing animal husbandry projects: experiences in India

Vol. XXXVI, No. 2, December 1985
- Policy design by means of morphological analysis (with special reference to the development of civic education in Hong Kong)
- China's economic development and reforms
- Has monetarism failed in India? The case of missing inflation
- Differentials in urban-rural fertility in the countries of the ESCAP region

Vol. XXXVII, No. 1, June 1986
- Review of progress, policies and issues in food and agriculture in the ESCAP region
- Mobilization of domestic resources in a least developed country: the case of Maldives
- Strategies and techniques of India's five-year plans
- Financial structure and development in some third world Asian countries: a cross-country review
- Plan objectives and economic policies in Bangladesh: 1972-1984

Vol. XXXVII, No. 2, December 1986
- Patterns of trade and movements of interregional terms of trade between the developing and the developed market economies, 1950-1980
- Education and human resources development in Papua New Guinea
- Role of education and vocational training in human resources development in the Repubic of Korea
- External debts of Fiji
- Rural employment and wages in Bangladesh: the impact of improved organization and technology

Vol. XXXVIII, No. 1/2, June/December 1987
- Industrial development in the ESCAP region: a review of progress and issues
- Responses of South Asian economies to international economic crises of recent years
- The debt crisis with special reference to some low-income developing countries
- Development problems and prospects of island microstates
- The relationship between township enterprises and the development of agriculture in China
- Nominal interest rates behaviour in an open developing economy: some evidence from Malaysia
- Output and inflationary consequences of money growth: a Granger causality test for Bangladesh
- Forecasts and actuals of Fiji sugarcane output: a bird's-eye view

Vol. XXXIX, No. 1, June 1988
- Policy alternatives for commodity exporters
- Economic planning and policy-making in Singapore
- Organizing the rural poor and its impact: The experience of selected non-governmental and governmental organizations in Bangladesh
- Women's participation in economic activities in the ESCAP region: Issues and Policies
- Women in modern sector employment in India: A look through the 1981 census results
- The handicrafts industry in India

Vol. XXXIX, No. 2 December 1988
- Development planning in ASEAN: lessons of experience
- Short-run supply responsiveness for long-run crops in the South Pacific: a review of recent studies and policy implication of their findings
- The small scale industries in economic development in Indonesia
- Marketing farm produce: an efficiency test of traditional and regulated markets based on evidence from Assam, India
- Relative position of selected Asian countries in basic needs achievement: a note

Vol. XXXIX. No. 2, December 1988
- Development planning in ASEAN: lessons of experience
- The small scale industries in economic development in Indonesia
- Marketing farm produce: an efficiency test of traditional and regulated markets based on evidence from Assam, India
- Relative position of selected Asian countries in basic needs achievement; a note
- Note on the "import genetics" of the Indian economy

Vol. XL, No. 1/2, June/December 1989
- Towards a new international development strategy: emerging concerns and development priorities in the Asian and Pacific region in the 1990s
- Prospects of restructuring the developing Asian and Pacific economies in the 1990s
- Constructing long-term scenarios of the Hong Kong economy
- Labour absorption in the manufacturing sector in Sri Lanka: with special reference to the post-1977 period
- India's trade in factor and non-factor services: policies and performance

* For Economic Bulletin issues prior to vol. XXXV, 1984, please refer to this index in vol. XXXV, 1984 or to the Development Planning Division, ESCAP.